2. Unless otherwise defined in this Agreement, words which are written with an initial capital letter shall have the same meaning as is given to them in the Tenancy Agreement. All references to Landlord shall be deemed to include any person authorised to act on the Landlord's behalf ("Agent").
3. In consideration of the Landlord agreeing to grant a tenancy to the Tenant the Guarantor (i) guarantees to the Landlord that they will pay the Rent and any Fees due under the Tenancy Agreement within 14 days of the date of the Landlord's written demand and (ii) agrees to act for, and in place of, the Tenant should they fail, for any reason, to meet the financial commitments arising from the Tenancy Agreement.
4. The Guarantor also guarantees to the Landlord that they will pay within 14 days of invoice, accompanied by evidence of the amount claimed, a sum equal to the Landlord's and the Landlord's Agent's losses, liabilities, damages, costs and expenses they have reasonably and necessarily incurred, as a result of any breach of the Tenant's obligations in the Tenancy Agreement.
5. The Guarantor agrees to indemnify the Landlord and the Landlord's Agent against all liabilities, costs, expenses, damages and losses suffered or incurred as a direct or indirect result of the Tenant's failure to comply with the Tenancy Agreement throughout the Tenancy Period (or Occupation Period in Wales). These include (but are not limited to) payment for cleaning, damage, redecoration, unpaid Rent, unpaid Fees, loss of profit, loss of reputation, interest, penalties and legal costs (calculated on a full indemnity basis) and all other reasonable professional costs and expenses.
6. The Guarantor's obligations remain fully effective even if the Tenancy Agreement is disclaimed or the Landlord gives the Tenant extra time to comply with any obligation or does not insist on strict compliance with its terms.
7. After lawfully terminating the Tenant's rights, the Landlord may let the Accommodation to someone else, but if the Landlord is not able to achieve as high a rent, or as long a tenancy as the Tenant agreed to in the Tenancy Agreement, the Guarantor shall remain liable for the shortfall.
8. If the tenancy is for a fixed term, this Agreement applies for the whole of the term and is not revocable during that term.
9. If the tenancy is periodic or has become periodic by agreement or the operation of law, this Agreement may be terminated by the Guarantor's written notice to:

ROOST OPCO 3 LIMITED
central.place@studentroost.co.uk

subject to the Tenant vacating at the earliest legally permissible date required for possession. If the Tenant fails to vacate on this earliest date, this Agreement shall continue until the Tenant vacates.

10. It is agreed that there shall be no right to cancel this Agreement once the tenancy has commenced and the Consumer Contracts (Information, Cancellation and Additional Charges) Regulations 2013 do not apply to this Agreement.

11. If during the Tenancy/Occupation Period the Tenant transfers to other accommodation let by the Landlord the Guarantor's obligations shall also transfer to that other accommodation but the Landlord will be under no obligation to inform the Guarantor of the transfer. The Guarantor's liability may be increased if that happens (for example, the Guarantor will be liable to pay the higher rent if the Tenant transfers to a more expensive accommodation).
12. The rights and remedies of the Landlord against the Guarantor in this Agreement do not affect the rights and remedies which the Landlord might have against the Tenant. If the Landlord recovers any sums from the Guarantor and subsequently recovers from the Tenant any sum in respect of the same liability then the sum recovered from the Tenant shall (up to the amount paid by the Guarantor) be re-paid to the Guarantor within 28 days.
13. The Guarantor hereby authorises the Landlord to use their personal data for all lawful purposes in connection with this Agreement (including debt recovery and crime prevention).
14. The Guarantor's obligations shall not be brought to an end by any early termination of the Tenancy Agreement.
15. The Guarantor agrees that if they have paid the Tenant's Damages Deposit, the Landlord and the Landlord's Agent shall be fully discharged from their liability to repay any Damages Deposit to the Guarantor at the end of the tenancy if the Damages Deposit (or any balance of Damages Deposit remaining after making any lawful deductions) is repaid to the Tenant.
16. The Guarantor warrants to the Landlord that the Guarantor is over the age of 18, in full time employment and either a homeowner or renting accommodation.
17. Nothing in this Agreement shall restrict or limit the Landlord's general obligation to take reasonable steps to minimise any loss it may suffer as a result of a breach of the Tenancy Agreement. However, the Landlord shall not be under any obligation to suffer any detriment itself in order to reduce the Guarantor's liability.
18. Should the Guarantor die during the term of this Agreement, the Guarantor's estate will be liable as surety and co-principal debtor.
19. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of England and Wales and the Parties submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.
